

With this website I want to:

- Build communities, where people come together to share their experiences and support each other.
- Set up a source of inspiration where daily encouragements, quotes, prayers and stories can be found.
- Build an educational platform for courses, workshops or webinars on faith building
- Provide services to churches and communities, for bible study programs, organizing events or coaching small groups.